

Pacific Fishery Management Council
Fishery Ecosystem Plan – Climate and Communities Initiative
Climate Change Scenarios for West Coast Fishing Regional Implications and Actions

Southern California Workshop
December 16-17, 2020

December 16

8.30am	Meeting Opens Logistics overview
9.00am	Welcome and Introductions
9.15am	Overview of workshop agenda and scenario narratives
9.20am	Recap of Scenarios: Regional Issues What are the implications for Southern California?
10.20am	Break
10.30am	Recap of Scenarios: Regional Issues (continued)
11.30am	Adjourn

LUNCH / BREAK

2.00pm	Stakeholder Challenges & Opportunities Breakout group conversations to identify the specific challenges and opportunities facing (i) harvesters, (ii) coastal communities, and (iii) scientists/researchers in each scenario.
4.00pm	Plenary Report Out
4.15pm	Review of Public Comments
4.30pm	Adjourn

December 17

9.00am	Review of Day 1 and Session Overview
9.10am	Actions to Prepare for the Future Breakout group conversations for (i) harvesters, (ii) coastal communities, and (iii) scientists/researchers to generate action ideas for how to best prepare for each scenario.
11.00am	Plenary Report Out
11.30am	Adjourn

LUNCH / BREAK

2.00pm	Review and Prioritize Actions Small group conversations with (i) harvesters, (ii) coastal communities, (iii) scientists/researchers, and (iv) fishery managers. Create a 'future agenda for action' to prepare across all scenarios.
3.00pm	Plenary Report-Out
3.30pm	Break
3.40pm	Reflections and Next Steps
4.15pm	Review of Public Comments
4.30pm	Adjourn